

“Continue in prayer and watch in the same with thanksgiving;” Colossians 4:2.

The apostle Paul told the Colossians to continue in prayer with thanksgiving. How many times do you pray during the day? The early Christians prayed everyday three times a day in the temple. Just like Daniel in chapter six verse 10 of Daniel. They prayed at 9 o'clock, noon, and at 3 o'clock in the temple. They had a passionate intensity in their prayers to lay down their own self and asking God to oversee all areas of their life. They also prayed for open doors that the ministry of Christ may be spoken unto those who do not know the Lord [see Colossians 4:3]. Not only should we do the same, but with thanksgiving. Thanksgiving is gratitude to God. Let us be thankful every day, for this is the day that the Lord has made. Let us pray and be thankful.
