

“In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.” 2 Corinthians 4:4

Who is the God of this world? Is it not Satan? Yes, it is Satan, also known as the prince of this world. Satan has other names, such as the devil, Lucifer, and adversary. Many in the world do not believe that Satan exists. They may believe in a spirit but not believe that Satan exists and is a spiritual being. Satan is a fallen angel who rebelled against God. Satan is connected to the world system, which is materialism, pride, and sinful pleasures. The God of this world has blinded the minds of the people of this world.

Satan's desire is to lead people away from the true God. This is done through deception, hatred, and evil ways. He comes as an angel of light, as the apostle Paul states in [2 Corinthians 11:14], trying to deceive the elect from turning away from the Gospel of Christ to the doctrine of devils. God provided a way through Jesus Christ, and there is no other way to the truth of the one and only God.

For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 2 Thessalosan 2:7-10

This mystery of iniquity, which is lawlessness, is already at work around the world. As the times come closer to the Lord's return, we will see more and more people engaging in lawlessness. Lying, stealing, and profanity may become the norm. I am witnessing this here in America. When the Ten Commandments, prayer, and anything related to God are removed from schools and government, we must ask ourselves what is taking their place. Is it the love of money and things? Pride, materialism, and racism are playing out in the streets of America. This is being witnessed on national TV. There is a coming storm of warning that is not being heeded.

“And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.” Romans 12:2

We need to look to God's plan through His son, Jesus, and repent. Let us come out from the mire of darkness of the world's ways and back to the standards of God in living godly lives. Be not conformed to this world, the apostle Paul states. We must renew our minds from the ways of the world to the ways or standards that God gave through the word. Remember the words of Jesus himself.

“These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.” John 15:19

Jesus himself has overcome the world. He has taken back what Satan has stolen. Satan is the accuser and adversary who now works in the children of disobedience [see Ephesians 2:2].

I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. John 10:9-10

We must have the mind of Christ to rebuke all evil in our personal lives and step out in faith in doing the will of God. We must cleanse ourselves by repenting and receiving forgiveness. Pray and read the word daily and walk a new life in Christ. " Be servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart," [Ephesians 6:6]. Let the light of the Gospel of Christ shine through you to others in this world of darkness.
